PRAY FOR SINGAPORE

Pray for Singapore Christians - "To know when to speak and when to be silent."

Meditate on James 3:5-8; Proverbs 17:28, 18:21, 31:26; Philippians 2:14; Psalm 19:14.

Questions to ask ourselves:

- Do you speak well of others?
- Do you weigh your words carefully before opening your mouth?
- Have you made every effort to rein in your wagging tongue?

Pointers to consider:

- One of the best ways to restrain the tongue is to practise the discipline of silence.
- With God's help and with constant effort and discipline on our part, we can and must take control of our speech.

Prayers:

1. Pray that Christians in Singapore will give considerate thoughts on their families and homes for “family is where life begins and love never ends.” Pray that we will build healthy family and home environments where appreciation and affirmation are being uttered often by each member of the family unit. Pray that there will be genuine forgiveness, understanding and willingness to reconcile with one another where hurt and offense have arisen.
2. Pray for Christian mothers that their words spoken to their children will be encouraging rather than discouraging and be positive rather than negative so that their children’s lives would be impacted and influenced for the advancement of the gospel of Christ.
3. Pray that Christians will set aside a day in a week to observe a few minutes of interior silence. Notes: Interior silence means you do not just stop talking but you mute that noisy chatter inside your head and just think of God. This simple discipline will help train your tongue to retreat in situations where you normally fire off.
